There Never Was a More Successful Sale In El Paso

YOU may think it a little early to make as broad a claim as this. We do not make this claim only on account of the enormous crowds that came this morning.

Why This Sale Is Successful

THIS is our 17th World of White. These events are always successful because years ago they established a reputation for giving fresh wanted merchandise at less than its real value. Popular customers realize the importance of the World of White and the opening crowds proved that the public will not be slow to take advantage of it.
